ANOTHER PROVISO.—We clip the following made the pledge.

As evidence that my memory is not at fault, I from yesterday's dispatches:

The five new Territories which the House committee on Territories propose to organize contain respectively the following number of inhabitants: Chippeway from 8,000 to 10,000, Nevada about the same, Dacotah 8,000, Idalio, Pike's Peak, 15,000 to 20,000. Each of these will contain the following proviso: Provided, that nevertheless slavery has no legal existence in said Territory, and when upbraided by the men of the South for refusing to co-operate with them in the election of that distinguished gentleman to the Speakerslavery has no legal existence in said Territory, and nothing herein contained shall be construed and nothing herein contained shall be construed against Mr. Millson, that he had voted against against Mr. Millson, that he had voted against Mr. Millson which was a manufactured whic

The proviso in reference to slavery engrafted in the bills to organize these Territories is similar to the Wilmot Proviso. It will no Fillmore that the passage of the Kansas-Nebraska doubt pass the present House of Representatives, and, failing in the Senate, will become all the evils attendant upon the agitation of the slavery question. I shall not attempt to reconstanding the fact that it has been declared unconstitutional in the Dred Scott decision.

MR. JAMESS. CHRISMAN

People of the Fourth Congressional District of Kentucky.

FELLOW CITIZENS: You are aware that by the partisan action of the late Know-Nothing Board of Examiners, I was refused a certificate of election, and the same was given to Wm. C. Inasmuch as these allusions are adopted and declared as a platform of principles by the Democratic Convention at Cincinnati the year 1856, believing that Democratic principles I have no other means of communication with you, have no other means of communication with you, have concluded, over my own signature, to adopt this mode, and fully inform you how he doubtless aimed at and intended for me, and as I the same subject-matter, and we recommend as our only further resolutions the following: has disposed of the power intrusted to his hands, our only further resolutions the following: not by you, but by Messrs. Coming into Congress, as he did, pledged to retrench and reform the expenses of the govern American Champion, was decidedly the victor lieved by you, that he would give his influence and lend his aid to accomplish that end; but his mber, among other things, he condemned the Democratic party for what he termed extravaance in the printing department, charging that upwards of one hundred thousand dollars had been expended by them in the foolish expenditure of engraving birds, bugs, snakes, frogs, &c., &c. which accompanied the report on the Pacific rail road survey. You will be astonished when I tell you, that within a few days past, at the instance of the Republican party, by resolution of the House, for which he voted, and against which the Democratic party voted, ten thousand extra copies of the 11th volume of said report was ordered to be printed, at a cost of upwards of fifty thousand dollars, when the same had already been printed for the use of the government by the Senate, at the close of the last Congress—the reprinting of which will materially assist his friend, Gover republication of this work is the most wasteful piece of extravagance that has ever characterized the public printing. In these ten thousand extra copies are to be found the same birds, bugs, snakes, and frogs that he exhibited during the canvass, to the infinite delight of his friends. I here promise them that they shall have another benefit and a re-exhibition when I again return to the District. The course of Mr. Anderson in voting for Mr. Ford for printer of the House, so far as my information extends, has no advocate or apologist among his party friends "in Kentucky, save the editor of the Danville Tribune." The Louisville Journal, the acknowledged organ and leader of his party in the State, recently condemned, the most bitter and decided terms, the course of Hon. Henry Winter Davis, an oppositi from the State of Maryland, for voting for Mr Pennington for Speaker. If the course of Mr. Davis should draw down upon him the denuncia tions and anathemas of the Journal for voting for a Republican for Speaker, what must be his judg- septennial streams of blood, we ask you, in all ment of Mr. Anderson's conduct in giving into the seriousness, to organize yourselves Republicans a place of the greatest responsibility, and the most lucrative in the gift of the popular branch of Congress? This same Gov. Ford was the one who attempted to abelitionize the Philadel phia American Convention of '55, and when that edy adopted the 12th section of their platform, declaring the past legislation of Congress upon slavery a finality, second from the same, and repaired to Cleveland, Ohio, where his anti-slavery approach was heralded by the following telegraphic

"The North is beaten; 13 States have withdrawn in disgust. Say to our friends at Cleveland, we are with you, heart and soul. May God eternally damn slavery as d dough aceism."

This same Gov. Ford reappears in a convention of the Republicans in New York, in 1856, and ades them as follows: 'He rose to counsel concession, and a union of all the conflicting elements for the overthrow of popery and slavery. The American party has a great work to do, and that work is, to spread Americanism, and resist slavery, (applause) and they, (popery and slavery,) have upon earth but ion, the extinction of human liberty. The power of oppression is the same, whether it be foreign or domestic. Can we not combine for the overthrow of these powers of darkness? Applause.) Is it possible that the people of the North cannot unite for the overthrow of that hy dra headed monster, popery and slavery? I tell you we can and we will. (Great applause.) Poli ticians everywhere who oppose us in this will be compelled, before the election, to give way to the will of the people. Now, after I have been with you for more than one year, you will give me leave to say that it has become our duty to declare, even if it bring upon us the charge of ego-tism, that the American party claims the credit for being the first to effect a union against the agressions of slavery. In conclusion, I heartily indorse the nomination of Fremont."

Such is his speech as reported in the New York with slavery. Mr. Anderson, by his vote, cries name is recorded seven times out of ten along-up Gov. Ford. Gov. Ford says the Republican side of the Hon. Owen Lovejoy, of Illinois, who party has but one mission on earth, and that is to recently ddclared, upon the floor of the House, resist slavery. Mr. Anderson says, by his vote, that he stood resist slavery. he cannot resist Gov. Ford. Gov. Ford calls upon the Republicans to unite to overthrow slavery, and Mr. Anderson gives aid and comfort in work by giving him an office, by which he will be enabled to realize fifty thousand dollars.

But it is said by the editor of the Danville Tribune, in its issue of the 6th instant, "That Mr. Anderson voted for Governor Ford, it is true, but voted for him in preference to Mr. Glossbrenner, an abolition Democrat, and former editor of a freesoil paper. Mr. Ford is an old-line Whig and American, and has acted with the Republicans as against the Democrats. He is said to be a moderate conservative politician after the manner of man of Corwin, who served his counsolve and combine them all, and the result amal try with great gallantry in the Mexican war." The subjoined letter will enable you to see both of these gentlemen in their true light, Mr.

YORK, PENNA., April 6, 1860. HON. J. S. CHRISMENS

My Dear Sir: Referring to a conversation that I had with you, as I was about to leave Washington, in which you informed me that Mr. William C. Anderson, of your State, in speaking of his vote for Mr. Ford, a Republican, for Prin ter of the House of Representatives, had stated that he was compelled, in voting, to choose be tween a Republican and the publisher of a free-soil newspaper in Pennsylvania, I deem it proper to place in your possession in writing the substance of what I then stated verbally. As the name of no other Pennsylvanian than myself was before the House at the time of Mr. Ford's election, I presume that Mr. Anderson intended to in timate that I was "the publisher of a freesoil Now, sir, although I had no right to expect Mr. Anderson's vote on that occasion, having no claim upon him, nor any affinity with him, political, personal, or otherwise, I had a trict-right to expect that, if he felt it necessary to heart. seek a justification for his vote for a Republican, he should do so without doing me, and those gentlemen of the House of Representatives who honored me with their support, so gross a wrong as to put me into an entirely false position. My political sentiments are well known to many gentle men now in Congress; for, while I have sought not to be obtrusive. I have at the same time been by no means reserved in the expression of any inion I ever entertained.

I cannot conceive upon what ground, or upon whose information, Mr. Anderson has felt authorized to ascribe to me the publication of a free-soil newspaper. Be that as it may, howev er, the declaration is unwarranted, and destitute of even a shadow of foundation in truth. I have not the vanity to suppose that the political position of an individual so unimportant as myself can be of much interest to anybody; but, eschewing and repudiat ng, as I do, the kindred monstrosities of modern republicanism, abolitionism, and free soilism, my self-respect prompts me, when an attempt is made to identify me with them, or either of them, to repel the imputation as emphatically as I should feel called upon to re pel a charge of treason to the Constitution, made

Very truly and respectfully,

Your friend and obedient servar

A. J. GLOSSBRENNER. Gov. Ford was put in nomination for printer to the House on the 13th ballot, and for that and the 14th and 15th ballots received the entire Republican vote, together with the vote of Mr. An lerson and his colleague, Hon. Green Adams. On the 16th ballot Mr. Anderson was deserted by Mr. Adams, and was left to Ford it alone for that Americans, came to the relief of Mr. Anderson, and they, together with the Republicans, elected This created, as might be expected, a storm of indignation against him throughout Kentucky. Through curiosity I have been led to examine into his record made during this Congress, the result of which, since the election of a speaker by the House, is, that the aves and noes have been called in the House, to which he responded forty eight times-thirty seven of which he is found recorded with the Republicans, and for the measures they have sustained in the House-the led to were wrong, yet I mention them and here ntroduce them to show his proclivities to vote with the Republicans rather than with those who re acting against them. It has been again and gain said here and in the 4th district, that Mr. Anderson has commended himself to the confience and support of the Republicans in the iouse by his co-operation with them. In order that you may have a clear conception

[For the Yeoman.] The Appellate Judgeship--Hon. E.C. Phister,

Mr. EDITOR: The Democratic party will be held responsible for the character and qualifications of the individual who may be elected to succeed the present distinguished chief justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. It will be hard to and ability, and not less distinguished for inflexible integrity, cannot be doubted among those belonging to our party, and whose claims I desire to present to the Convention soon to be held. (and I hope at Owingsville,) as possessing rare fitness for that high station, is the Hon. ELIJAH

C. PHISTER, of the Maysville district. In this region of the State Judge Phister is known to be a man of the most estimable private character, dignified and manly in his bearing, and having the love and confidence of the whole community. He is a thoroughly educated lawyer, with a mind disciplined by constant and unremitting study, and made practical by an enlarged experience of many years at the bar and upon the circuit bench. In all those essential requisites for an accomplished jurist-of profound knowledge of elementary law, thorough philosophic comprehension of the whole system of jurisprudence, capacity for systematic investigation and thought, intuitive discernment of truth, and perfect imparti ality in the application of legal principles to particular cases-Judge Phister has no experience in the State, or elsewhere, among met, of his own age. During the four years he has been upon the bench in this circuit he has proved himself to be one of the most able, sound, and accurate judges in the State, having had fewer cases reballot and the 17th also. On the 18th ballot, versed by the Court of Appeals than any of his Hon. Henry Winter Davis alone, of all the South compeers, and his opinions commanding always the highest respect of that enlightened tribunal. I do not understand that Judge Phister is seeking the nomination; but, on the contrary, I believe he is not. His friends, however, who appreciate his lofty character and rare judicial qualities, are anxious that he should be nominated, believing that no man can be selected who will, with more fidelity to the public, or greater honor to himself, discharge the important and responsible duties of that station. If Judge Phister were as well known remainder with the southern men. Whilst I do that station. If Judge Phister were as well known not assert that each of the 37 votes above alluto the people in other parts of this Appellate district as he is known in this judicial circuit, he would be nominated by acclamation.

His election to the circuit bench in 1856, by an overwhelming vote, in a district the year before had given a very large Know-Nothing majority, broke the prestige of Know-Nothing power in this section of the State, and contributed imf the ends and objects proposed by the Repub-can party, and the extent to which they go in which eventuated finally in placing the whole which eventuated finally in placing the whole political power of the State in the hands of the Democracy. Let us not lose this opportunity of placing Judge Phister in a position of more enlarged sefulness, and where his great learning and ability will reflect distinguished honor and renown upon ring them to a knowledge of the inferior and the party of which he is one of its wisest and NICHOLAS.

Mr. Coken, of Ga., one of the remaining delegates, proceeded to address the Convention. From early manhood he had been in the front ranks of those who had been foremost of the extremest sect of the State Rights school, yet he was here, fter a majority of his associates had retired. He had been induced to remain here in the hope that the eup of conciliation (?) may be dashed to the Whilst he was with those who retired, in earth. sentiment, he had chosen to remain and make an effort for peace and union. There was no division of sentiment at the South, and there had never been any division except as to a question time. The South is in earnest. He could see in this division and destruction of the Democratic party, a ripple that would swell to a wave and carry to the Presidential chair the arch-fiend of Black Republicanism. His appeal for concilia-tion and compromise was most impressive. He concluded by declaring that he intended to remain in the Convention until the last feather was placed on the camel's back, and then he would be among the foremost to leave it.

Mr. Flournoy, of Arkansas, said his advice was never to give up the ship, but to call up the crew and face the storm. He had been reared among Lasting Kid, and Morocco Gaiters, Bootees, and the institution. He believed slavery a benefit to master and slave. All he had in the world was the product of slave labor, and therefore he trust-ed he was above suspicion. He believed that his Southern friends had acted wrongly in this matter. He believed that the South cannot be uni ted on the ground they have taken, and that they will be sustained by their constituents.

Mr. Montgomery, of Pa., was opposed to these speeches on either side. If there are more delegates prepared to leave, let them go. They have yourselv all made up their minds and we have made up ours. We wish to proceed with business.

The Seceder's Convention.

CHARLESTON, April 30 -St. Andrew's Hall last night was througed with members of the bolters from the Convention, John C. Preston, of South Carolina, presiding. Mr. P. delivered a short address. He considered this a great occasion. He said we only know the imperiled institutions of our country. We are here to preserve our rights and redress our wrongs. If we had sub mitted, we should have done that which would have driven us from the land of our fathers and deprived us of the liberty they fought for, and ultimately would have driven us from the spot in which their sacred ashes repose.

Mr. Yancey followed with a statement of his views of the position occupied by the Southern delegates. We appear here simply as citizens of the Strte in which we live.

We were sent to the National Democratic Convention as delegates, but our mission has been fulfilled, and we retire as mere citizens from the late National Convention, which is now a mere sectional gathering. A few Southern delegates still remain there, it is true, but it is in the hope of inducing these to forego their Black Republican purposes. Mr Yancey proposed that they should take no action, but to remain here and watch the proceedings of the regular Convention Should that Convention nominate Douglas, it would then become their duty to present and re-commend to the people of the United States candidates for President and Vice President, and on a national and constitutional basis, and, therefore, a Southern basis. He thought no steps should be taken by the seceding Convention until the prop

He was very severe on the New York delegates, who came here, he said, professing a desire to join in such a nomination as would suit the South, but as soon as they had received their seats turned their backs on the He trusted that other States would with draw from that Convention, and that it would be utterly dissolved. He did not consider that seceders had the power to make regular nominations, but he would recommend, if it should be found necessary, that they should join in the re-commendation of some suitable candidates, with a written address to their constituents. Mr. Matthews, of Louisiana, in behalf of his delegation, asked that no action should be taken by this body until we see instead of eight States we do not to morrow number fifteen and perhaps seventeen; we should wait till to morrow, and we should do nothing hastily until we hear from those Entrance on St. Clair, opposite the Mansion House States who asked for an adjournment last evening, to the course they should pursue. to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Desth, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite; with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance, and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Head, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Fl. Jing before the eyes, with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more Desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread than fear for themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

FRANKFORT, April 17, 1860.

BY direction of the Governor of the State, the attention of the proper civil officers is called to the following provisions of the new Military Law, which relate to the enrollment of the whole body of the Militia, viz:

relate to the enrollment of the whole body of the Militia, viz:

ARTICLE II.

"§ 1. The Enrolled Militia shall consist of all ablebodied white male persons between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, who may be citizens or residents of the State, except persons who have served not less than five years in the Army or Navy of the United States, persons who may be active members of the Volunteer Militia, and persons already exempt from military service by the laws of the United States or of this State.

"§ 2. It shall be the duty of the assessors to prepare a list annually of all persons liable to be efrolled living within their respective limits; and they shall annually make out a roll or list of all such names, and place it, before the first day of June, in the hands of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such persons live; and it shall be the duty of every such clerk, immediately thereafter, to record said roll or list of names, in a book to be provided for that purpose, in the same manner as other books of record are provided; and such record shall be deemed a sufficient notification to all persons whose names are thus recorded, that they have been enrolled in the Militia.

"§ 4. That it shall be the duty of the clerk of every county court to transport to the Adulting Mexed of the county count to transport to the Adulting Mexed of the clerk of every Militia.

"§ 4. That it shall be the duty of the clerk of every county court to transmit to the Adjutant General of the State prior to the first day of September, in every year, an annual return, stating the number of the Militia of such county that have been enrolled.

"§ 5. That for the services required by this act, of the assessor and county court clerk, there shall be allowed to each of these officers the sum of one cent for each name returned by the assessor and enrolled by the elerk.

"§ 6. All county clerks, assessors, sheriffs, or other civil officers, upon whom are devolved the discharge yo. All county cierks, assessors, snerills, or other evil officers, upon whom are devolved the discharge of specific duties under this act, who shall neglect or refuse to obey the provisions of law herein specified shall forfeit and pay not more than five hundred nor less than twenty dollars for each and every offense to be recovered in any count of computery in circumstance.

shall forfeit and pay not more than five hundred nor of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumptions, bear ample testimony to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums, the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute. Neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur. it is rarely articulate.

authority to order a special election to fill such vacancy."

The objects of the above sections of the law are, firstly, to obtain a full enrollment of the entire Militia of the State, with a view of enabling the Adjutant General to make a complete return to the general government, as a basis on which to draw our full quota of arms; and, secondly to provide, by the election of proper officers in every county, for a complete organization of the Enrolled Militia into companies, battallions, and regiments. The assessors will use every means to make their lists as complete as possible, and the county clerks are desired to make their returns to my office as soon as practicable after enrollment. The actual number of persons enrolled, and not the names, will be reported by the county clerks to my office.

and not the names, will be reported by the county clerks to my office.

Section 2 of Article IV makes it the special duty of the Adjutant General to see that the "offices of Colonel and Lieuvenant Colonel in each regimental district shall be constantly filled." In obedience to this injuction, I therefore call the attention of the proper civil officers to Section 8, Article II, herein quoted. A column will be opened in the poll books at every place of voting in each county, at the next August election, to record the votes for the offices of Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel for the regimental district; and the board of examiners are desired to report the result of such election as early as practicable. All persons in the county liable to be enrolled, and no others, will be entitled to vote for those officers.

Taving purchased the residence and school proan perty of Prof. E. A. Grant, I am glad to announce to my numerous patrons and to the public, that I am now enable to continue my School with increased advantages. The school building is a large and commodious one, built upon the most approved plan, well ventilated and furnished with desks of the lakest style. The location is a pleasant one, in the most retired part of South Frankfort. With these increased facilities, I hope to establish a School with such a system of discipline and instruction as will commend itself to all patrons and friends of a thorough classic education. Have ample accommodations

A Specific for Hooping-Cough. T is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson. Shelby, and Oldham, that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I have no doubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and lull to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficiency for one child. This medicine can be conveyed to any part of the United States by express for a mere trifle.
